LOCAL BREVITIES

Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

All aboard for Pickens.

Monday is my holiday—must go to Pickens.

Are you going to Pickens Monday? Yes.

The girls are expected to look their sweetest Monday.

Miss May McFall from Chicora is at home for the vacation.

Every old soldier and his wife are expected here next Monday.

Miss Inez Morris came home last week from Chicora to spend vacation.

Miss Bessie Jones of Easley was visiting Mrs. T. R. Allen last week.

Dr. L. F. Robinson went to Atlanta last Monday on professional business.

Don't fail to come to town next Monday and help give the veterans a fine day.

Miss Martin, one of the teachers, returned to her home at Donalds last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Loefer left last week for Gastonia, N. C., where they will reside.

Fine rains fell in many places if not over the entire county last Sunday morning.

Mrs. J. T. Taylor and Mrs. Ernest Folger and daughter are visiting in Norcross, Ga.

Capt. J. T. Taylor spent the largest part of last week at Webster, N. C. attending court.

Mr. M. M. Holder has a very fine field of wheat and also oats on the road near Town Creek.

Every young man in the county will bring his sweetheart to Pickens next Monday, sure.

Crosses of Honor will be conferred by the Ladies of Pickens Chapter, U. D. C., on June 3rd.

Miss Norma Griffin, who has been teaching at Catechee this session, is at home for the vacation.

Mrs. Ralph Hester and little daughter, Nonna Lee, of Texas, visited relatives in Pickens last week.

Mrs. I. M. Mauldin left this week for Monroe, N. C., where she will visit friends for some days.

Miss Miller who has been teaching in the school here returned to her home in Laurens Monday.

Rev. B. E. Grandy and son, Lloyd returned to Elloree last Monday where they have a large contract.

A great treat is in store for all those who are fortunate enough to hear Judge Jones next Monday.

Mrs. Emma Major, who has been visiting in Anderson and Greenville for two weeks, returned Monday.

Enough county pride should be felt by our County Commissioners to improve and beautify the court house ground.

Mr. J. H. Morgan, of Greenville, was on a visit to his sisters Mrs. R. A. Bowen and Mrs. Florence Griffin last week.

Rev. R. A. Child, of Hendersonville, N. C., financial agent of Lander College, Greenwood, was in the city last week.

Hon. J. P. Carey is attending court at Anderson this week assisting in the defense of Ellison who killed Hunt some time ago.

The Pickens Drug Company say that they are selling more Rexall goods than ever before. Nearly every day sees an increase in the sales of these goods.

The Pickens Drug Company has also just received a shipment of Dodson's Livertone, the greatest selling liquid liver medicine in the country.

They say that if you try the above named remedies and are not satisfied that they will refund your money.

Mr. J. L. Looper captured a carp in Saluda last Saturday which weighed fifteen pounds, and Sunday he feasted on fish.

"My hat is in the ring," says Mr. J. C. Jennings, whose announcement appears in this issue of The Sentinel for the office of sheriff.

Come to Pickens June 3rd.

and help the Daughters of the Confederacy in honoring the Veterans of Pickens County.

Be sure to attend the baseball game on the afternoon of June 3rd, played by local teams for the benefit of the Arlington Monument.

Come to the re-union, it will be the greatest occasion in years for Pickens. Judge Ira B. Jones will deliver the annual address on this day.

Married Sunday 26th inst. at the residence of the officiating minister, Mr. Thomas Elin and Miss Lizzie Hopkins. Rev. J. T. Lewis performing the ceremony.

The young people of the community had a delightful singing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jones, near Cross Roads last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Avery Looper who has been in the west for the last five years will reach his old home this week to visit his mother and other relatives.

Sheriff Roark comes to the front this week and asks for reelection. He has served in this office one term and is willing for the people to pass on his record as an officer.

Mr. J. M. Clements', many friends will regret to learn of his illness. He has been confined to his home for some time. It is hoped, however, that he will soon recover.

Capt. W. N. Hughes, for many years one of the prominent citizens of this county, but now an exile in Greenville was in the city last week on business.

Mrs. Lucetta Hester accompanied Mrs. Ralph Hester on the latter's return to Texas, where she will visit her children and enjoy Western life otherwise for about eight months.

Confederate veterans, I will have only 24 books on "The Sinking of the Titanic" to sell June 3rd, so if you expect to get one you must come to The Sentinel office early on that day.

A. M. Jones, Sentinel office.

Of the candidates so far announced Pickens claims five, Central four, Easley two, Dacusville one. Liberty and the other sections of the county are yet to be heard from.

There will be a game at the ball ground between the married and the single boys on the afternoon of June 3rd. This is expected to be the best of the season and no doubt will attract a large crowd.

Everybody is invited to come to Pickens June 3rd, and the ladies are especially invited to join the members of Pickens Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, in helping to provide sufficient dinner for the Veterans on the occasion.

Maj. G. W. Bowen, candidate County Commissioner was in the city last week. He noticed the improvements going on by way of paving the streets and said he had always been in favor of improving and beautifying the court house grounds.

As a result of a meeting which has been in progress at the Pickens Mill for the past ten days in which the pastor, Rev. C. A. Waters, was assisted several days by Dr. Henry Miller of Greenville, seventeen persons were baptised last Sunday by the pastor.

A committee of ladies will be at the rear door of the court house on the east side, on June 3rd, and will take charge of all baskets. Those who are participating in the picnic-dinner will kindly leave their baskets with these ladies, as early as possible after arriving.

Hon. D. W. McLaurin, of Columbia, was in the city last week on business. Mr. McLaurin is spoken of as a probable candidate to succeed Hon. R. H. Jennings, the present state treasurer, who will not stand for reelection. Mr. McLaurin has many friends in this county and is generally known, and it is quite probable will receive a flattering vote.

Col Robt A Thompson, the last surviving signer of the Ordinance of Secession, has been invited to participate in the exercises of June 3rd. Although, having cast his lot with Oconee County in the division of the Pickens District in 1868, he represented our entire District in the Secession Convention, and Pickens county claims and is justly proud of him, and reveres him as our most honored citizen.

The Drink Problem

is a big one and the best answer is a drink at our Soda Fountain.

COLD--- Everything is very cold---the water, syrups, crushed fruits and the ice cream.

CLEAN---From top to bottom inside and out

PURE--- Everything we serve is absolutely pure, every drink is delicious. We serve it right
